Girbau North America welcomes Delaney, Murkley and Novak

Oshkosh, Wis.—Girbau North America (GNA) recently welcomed new team members, including Dylan Delaney, of Kaukauna, as accounting assistant; Alivia Murkley, of Berlin, Wis., as customer experience administrative coordinator; and Sabrina Novak, of Ripon, Wis., as parts and warehouse specialist.

“Our company is growing tremendously and we are always looking to welcome talented, new team members who will contribute to our continued success,” said (GNA) President Mike Floyd. “We not only wholeheartedly welcome Alivia, Dylan and Sabrina, we look forward to their future growth and contributions within the company.”

- Delaney comes to GNA as a recent graduate of University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, where he earned a bachelor’s degree in finance with a minor in accounting. During his college career, he earned accolades as a member of the track and field team – qualifying for Nationals in hammer in 2021 and earning all-conference honors for three consecutive years. Moreover, he holds experience in customer service, sales and accounting roles. As GNA’s new accounting assistant, Delaney handles accounts payable functions and assists with other inventory and accounting duties. “I hope to positively impact GNA with a great work ethic and dedication to be the best employee I can be for this company,” he said.

- Murkley holds a bachelor’s degree in business administration, with a double major in business management and human resource management, from University of Wisconsin Oshkosh. A 2021 graduate, she also holds experience in customer service and marketing. Most recently, she served

Enterprise in Fond du Lac, Wis., as a management trainee. In her new GNA role as customer experience administrative coordinator, she juggles a number of responsibilities, including organizing outgoing correspondence and company events, providing administrative support to the executive staff, coordinating travel needs, greeting visitors, fielding phone calls and distributing incoming messages, among others. “I want to go the extra mile for GNA, our people, and our customers,” said Murkley. “I want to help make people’s lives easier by being helpful and supportive.”

- Novak comes to GNA with 30 years of experience in manufacturing, including forklift operation, fulfilling parts orders, taking inventory, shipping and receiving, and working production lines. In her new role as parts and warehouse specialist, Novak handles parts fulfillment and shipping, parts organization and stocking, and the crating and uncrating of machines, among others. “I hope to use my dedication and attention to detail to positively impact GNA,” she said.
